

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
 - For each other's requests
 - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together: Colossians 2:11-23

Key verses: 13 When you were dead in your transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our transgressions, 14 having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us, which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. 15 When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities, He made a public display of them, having triumphed over them through Him. 16 Therefore no one is to act as your judge in regard to food or drink or in respect to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day— 17 things which are a mere shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ. 18 Let no one keep defrauding you of your prize by delighting in self-abasement and the worship of the angels, taking his stand on visions he has seen, inflated without cause by his fleshly mind, 19 and not holding fast to the head, from whom the entire body, being supplied and held together by the joints and ligaments, grows with a growth which is from God.

Talk Together:

1. In verses 13-15, list down what Jesus accomplished for us on the cross.
2. In verses 16, in what areas are we not to allow anyone to act as our judge?
4. In verse 19, in whom should we hold fast to and why?

Conviction:

Christ is supreme, I will live in freedom through Him.

Application:

How will you live in freedom for Jesus?

Pray Together:

Dear Jesus, thank You for freeing us from the bondage of sin once and for all through Your sacrifice on the cross. Empower us to abide in You and Your word so that we may honor and please You in all that we do. Amen.
