

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
  - For each other's requests
  - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
  - For each other's requests.)
  - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together:

Matthew 5:4 “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Talk Together:

1. What do you do to avoid being sad?
2. What does “mourn” mean? Search for other similar words.
3. What did Jesus promise to those who mourn?
4. What do you think is the kind of “mourning” that God blesses?
5. On a scale of 1 to 10, how deeply do you feel pain when you violate your relationship with God? How do you deal with it?

Conviction:

The Lord is my comfort times of mourning.

Application:

How will you practice depending on God for comfort in times of mourning?

Pray Together:

Dear Father, thank you that we can come to you for things that bring us sorrow and pain. Thank you for meeting us in our situation and giving us comfort. We praise you for Your love and Your presence. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Read Together:

Matthew 5:4 “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Talk Together:

1. What do you do to avoid being sad?
2. What does “mourn” mean? Search for other similar words.
3. What did Jesus promise to those who mourn?
4. What do you think is the kind of “mourning” that God blesses?
5. On a scale of 1 to 10, how deeply do you feel pain when you violate your relationship with God? How do you deal with it?

Conviction:

The Lord is my comfort times of mourning.

Application:

How will you practice depending on God for comfort in times of mourning?

Pray Together:

Dear Father, thank you that we can come to you for things that bring us sorrow and pain. Thank you for meeting us in our situation and giving us comfort. We praise you for Your love and Your presence. In Jesus' name, Amen.