

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together.
3. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation. Discuss how you and your family members will apply the lesson from the verses.
4. Pray for each other's requests and ask for God's help to apply what you have learned.

Read Together:

Matthew 5:31-32 “It was said, ‘Whoever sends his wife away, let him give her a certificate of divorce’; but I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for the reason of unchastity, makes her commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Talk Together:

1. Why did the Lord discuss the issue of divorce in passing?
2. What does He want us to experience in our marriage?
3. What should spouses do to enjoy their marriage and family life?
4. How can children help their parents become more intimate and avoid the possibility of divorce or separation?

Conviction:

I will strengthen my relationships by: following God's design, prioritizing family Relationships, being Intentional and relying on God's Power to bring life to my relationships.

Application: Be Intentional!

- For spouses: Pray for your spouse and make it a habit to appreciate him or her for the things they do for you and the family.
- For children: Honor and obey your parents. Volunteer to do household chores this week so they can rest and spend some time with each other.

Pray Together: Dear Father, help us to obey Your will and empower us seek the best for our loved ones - to always choose to love, honor, and glorify You in all our relationships. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together.
3. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation. Discuss how you and your family members will apply the lesson from the verses.
4. Pray for each other's requests and ask for God's help to apply what you have learned.

Read Together:

Matthew 5:31-32 “It was said, ‘Whoever sends his wife away, let him give her a certificate of divorce’; but I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for the reason of unchastity, makes her commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Talk Together:

1. Why did the Lord discuss the issue of divorce in passing?
2. What does He want us to experience in our marriage?
3. What should spouses do to enjoy their marriage and family life?
4. How can children help their parents become more intimate and avoid the possibility of divorce or separation?

Conviction:

I will strengthen my relationships by: following God's design, prioritizing family Relationships, being Intentional and relying on God's Power to bring life to my relationships.

Application: Be Intentional!

- For spouses: Pray for your spouse and make it a habit to appreciate him or her for the things they do for you and the family.
- For children: Honor and obey your parents. Volunteer to do household chores this week so they can rest and spend some time with each other.

Pray Together: Dear Father, help us to obey Your will and empower us seek the best for our loved ones - to always choose to love, honor, and glorify You in all our relationships. In Jesus' Name, Amen.