

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
 - For each other's requests
 - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
 - For each other's requests.)
 - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together: Colossians 3:20-21

20 Children, be obedient to your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. 21 Fathers, do not exasperate your children, so that they will not lose heart.

Talk Together:

In these verses:

1. What are children commanded to do?
2. Why is it important for children follow this command?
3. What does exasperate mean?
4. How should parents treat their children and why?

Conviction:

I will please God by fulfilling my God-given role in our family.

Application:

Give specific ways how you will apply this lesson in your family.

Pray Together:

Dear Lord, thank you for our family. Empower us with Your Holy Spirit to obey You and please You in our relationship with one another. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Read Together: Colossians 3:20-21

20 Children, be obedient to your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. 21 Fathers, do not exasperate your children, so that they will not lose heart.

Talk Together:

In these verses:

1. What are children commanded to do?
2. Why is it important for children follow this command?
3. What does exasperate mean?
4. How should parents treat their children and why?

Conviction:

I will please God by fulfilling my God-given role in our family.

Application:

Give specific ways how you will apply this lesson in your family.

Pray Together:

Dear Lord, thank you for our family. Empower us with Your Holy Spirit to obey You and please You in our relationship with one another. In Jesus' Name, Amen.