

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
 - For each other's requests
 - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
 - For each other's requests.
 - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together: John 13:34-35

34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35 By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Talk Together:

1. In verse 34, what does God command us to do?
2. How are we to love others?
3. What does it mean to love like Jesus?
4. Why is it important to love one another?

Conviction:

I will love others as Christ loved me.

Application:

Think of someone in your life who is difficult to like. How will you start demonstrating love to that person this week?

Pray Together:

Dear Father, thank You for Your unconditional love. Help us to love others the way You love us. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Read Together: John 13:34-35

34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35 By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Talk Together:

1. In verse 34, what does God command us to do?
2. How are we to love others?
3. What does it mean to love like Jesus?
4. Why is it important to love one another?

Conviction:

I will love others as Christ loved me.

Application:

Think of someone in your life who is difficult to like. How will you start demonstrating love to that person this week?

Pray Together:

Dear Father, thank You for Your unconditional love. Help us to love others the way You love us. In Jesus' name, Amen.