

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
  - For each other's requests
  - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together: Deuteronomy 8:1-6

1 "All the commandments that I am commanding you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the Lord swore to give to your forefathers. 2 You shall remember all the way which the Lord your God has led you in the wilderness these forty years, that He might humble you, testing you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. 3 He humbled you and let you be hungry, and fed you with manna which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you understand that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the Lord. 4 Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years. 5 Thus you are to know in your heart that the Lord your God was disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son. 6 Therefore, you shall keep the commandments of the Lord your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.

Talk Together:

1. In verse 2, for what purpose does God allow trials and testing in our life?
2. In verses 3-4, what can we learn about God's character?
3. In verses 5-6, why does God discipline us?
4. How should we respond to God's discipline?

Conviction:

I will respond to God's love by obeying His commands.

Application:

What is a practical way you can remember God and His love in all you do this week?

Pray Together:

Dear Father, thank You for seeking our highest good. Empower us to obey your commands and depend on You for everything we need. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
  - For each other's requests.)
  - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together: Deuteronomy 8:1-6

1 "All the commandments that I am commanding you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the Lord swore to give to your forefathers. 2 You shall remember all the way which the Lord your God has led you in the wilderness these forty years, that He might humble you, testing you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. 3 He humbled you and let you be hungry, and fed you with manna which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you understand that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the Lord. 4 Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years. 5 Thus you are to know in your heart that the Lord your God was disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son. 6 Therefore, you shall keep the commandments of the Lord your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.

Talk Together:

1. In verse 2, for what purpose does God allow trials and testing in our life?
2. In verses 3-4, what can we learn about God's character?
3. In verses 5-6, why does God discipline us?
4. How should we respond to God's discipline?

Conviction:

I will respond to God's love by obeying His commands.

Application:

What is a practical way you can remember God and His love in all you do this week?

Pray Together:

Dear Father, thank You for seeking our highest good. Empower us to obey your commands and depend on You for everything we need. In Jesus' name, Amen.