

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
 - For each other's requests
 - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together:

Philippians 3:7-14 ⁷“But whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ, ⁹and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but what which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith. ¹⁰that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; ¹¹in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

¹²Not that I have already obtained it or have already become perfect, but I press on so that I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus. ¹³Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do; forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.”

2 Timothy 2:2 “The things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”

Talk Together:

1. From Philippians 3:7-9, what did Paul consider to be of more value?
2. What do you think caused him to have that kind of perspective?
3. With his perspective, what became of his priorities? What was his motivation?
4. In 2 Timothy 2:2, what was Paul's instruction? Why do you think that is important?

Conviction:

After having a personal encounter with Jesus, it will be my goal to be intentional in passing on a godly legacy that will impact others for eternity.

Application:

What are the ways I can be more intentional in impacting the lives of others and passing on a godly legacy to them?

Pray Together:

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your transforming work in our life. We pray that as we live our lives for You, help us to change our perspectives and priorities so that it will impact others for eternity for Your glory. In Jesus' Name we pray, Amen.
