

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together with each person reading a verse
3. Ask questions about each verse
4. Ask each child how they will apply what they have learned from the verses. (Even your young children) You, as a parent, also share what you will apply. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation not just for information.)
5. Pray together as a family (You and your children can take turns praying)
  - For each other's requests
  - To ask for God's help to apply what you have learned

Read Together:

Matthew 5:3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Luke 18:10-15 10 "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and was praying this to himself: 'God, I thank You that I am not like other people: swindlers, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I pay tithes of all that I get.' 13 But the tax collector, standing some distance away, was even unwilling to lift up his eyes to heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, the sinner!' 14 I tell you, this man went to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Talk Together:

1. What do you think does it mean to be poor in spirit?
2. In Luke 18:11-15, how does the Pharisee illustrate the opposite of being poor in spirit?
3. How does the tax collector demonstrate what it means to be poor in Spirit?
4. Jesus said the poor in spirit are blessed. How is the tax collector blessed at the end of the story?

Conviction:

I will completely depend on God for everything.

Application:

How will you apply being poor in spirit in your everyday life?

Pray Together:

Dear Father, help us to see our spiritual poverty apart from You. Empty us of pride and allow us to experience the blessing of complete dependence on You. In Jesus' name, Amen.
