

Devotion Guidelines:

1. Keep it short and interactive
2. Read the Scripture passage together.
3. Remember that Bible study is for application and transformation. Discuss how you and your family members will apply the lesson from the verses.
4. Pray for each other's requests and ask for God's help to apply what you have learned.

Read Together:

Matthew 5:10-12 10 “Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 “Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me. 12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

John 16:33 “These things I have spoken to you, so that in Me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world.”

Talk Together:

1. What does it mean to be “persecuted for the sake of righteousness”?
2. Why are followers of Jesus persecuted? How are they persecuted?
3. What should be our attitude if we are persecuted? Why?
4. What is the promise made to the persecuted?

Conviction:

I will rejoice and put my hope in Jesus in the face of persecution for He has overcome the world.

Application:

What are the ways you can express and share your faith this week? How will you respond to opposition? Be bold and trust God as you take a stand for Jesus.

Pray Together:

Dear Lord, prepare us to endure persecution as we follow and obey You. Help us to remain faithful. Always rejoicing and hopeful in You. In Jesus’ name, Amen.
